

King of the Micro Trading Survey

1. How long have you been trading?

6 months Demo then 12 months live A/c

2. How did you start trading?

Long held ambition

3. What are your favorite sources for news and/or your favorite technical indicators?

DailyFx, Forexfactory, MACD

4. What pair do you prefer to trade?

GBP/JPY

5. How long do you typically hold your trades?

Strive to 'Take a View', hence, hold plus trades for a minimum of 6/7 minutes up to several days

6. How much time do you spend trading every day?

Averages vary on a week to week basis from daily averages of 4hrs to 10hrs, take the view the greater the exposure & potential loss, the greater the 'tending' needs be.

7. What was your most successful or memorable trade, and what was your most unsuccessful trade?

My most successful in terms of pips captured was during the first week of this month, have had many unsuccessful trades but they remain typical in characteristic.

8. What do you think your greatest weakness is as a trader?

Complacency & trading against the trend!

9. What one thing did you do or learn that pushed you over the top?

Just an average trader, developing & enhancing skills set over time.

10. What kind of personality do you think you need to trade forex successfully?

Someone who can accept a bruised ego from time to time!

11. What do you think about forex vs. equities? Have you traded equities? Why do you trade forex?

Equities have a place in any balanced portfolio, personally view them as daily hands off, more a medium to long term investment. Forex is amazingly liquid with opportunities' around the clock for a day trader.

12. How has trading changed your life?

It's transformational from root upwards.

13. What advice would you give to a new trader?

'Aspire & only Aspire' ..to walk & then run some!

..but stick to 'crawling'

Taking a long view that your time will come.